The Monthly Newsletter of Zion Lutheran Church, Columbus, WI

August, 2021

Every so often our news will carry a story about a school struggling with the question of going to mandatory uniforms.

It's easy to understand the logic. Some of the most respected people in our society are those who wear uniforms. Proponents of school uniforms could probably produce studies that show that students are more likely to respect themselves and each other when wearing uniforms, too.

On the other hand, we also hear stories about people bringing disgrace to the uniforms they wear: criminal charges against professional ballplayers, corruption in police departments, and sexual abuse by clergy. Examples such as these indicate that just putting on a uniform does not make a person better.

Listen to the apostle Paul describe a different kind of clothing: "Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience" (Colossians 3:12).

Notice that Paul isn't just describing a change in outward appearances. Nor is he suggesting that we can somehow will ourselves into better behavior.

We don't earn the right to wear the clothes Paul describes. They come from being loved by God.

It all starts with the compassion Jesus had that moved him to lay down his life for the world.

Believing that Jesus loved us enough to die for us is what makes us one of his people. It also is what produces a change in our attitude.

As God's dearly loved people, we want to reflect the kind of compassion Jesus showed. That is something that will be as plain to see as any uniform.

Real changes in our lives won't happen just because we put on a district-mandated or color-coordinated outfit. That clothing just changes us on the outside. The inner change begins when we are clothed with God's love.

We hope you will visit us soon to learn more about God's great compassion.

Welcome, Mrs. Gretchen Asumus!

Let's start with family and background – Where did you grow up? What did you have for family/siblings growing up?

I grew up Richfield, Wi. I am the youngest of 11 children, 5 boys and 6 girls. My parents Richard and Joyce Thiesfeldt were very committed to Christian education, sending all of us to WELS grade schools and high schools. I attended David's Star Lutheran for grade school and Kettle Moraine Lutheran for high school.

How did you and Andy meet and marry? How are each of your kids unique?

Andy and I met while students at (Dr.) Martin Luther College. We married a year after I graduated. We have 3 daughters. Sofie (21) is a student at Concordia University, graduating in December with a degree in interior design. Josie (19) is a student at UW Whitewater and is thinking of majoring in Art. Shayla (16) is a junior at Lakeside Lutheran High School and is not ready to think about college yet! We also have a 16 year old Pomeranian dog named Rocky.

Best vacation you've had so far? Vacation you hope to have?

We recently vacationed in the Las Vegas area.

Beautiful, but maybe a bit too busy for our family! We loved a trip taken to Hilton Head, SC. I would love to visit Hawaii and Germany someday.

How did the Lord lead you to go into the ministry?

Since I am the youngest of many children, I have always been around kids. Many of my jobs have been working with kids of all ages. Many of my siblings are called workers. The ministry of teaching has always seemed like a perfect fit.

Have you a favorite, go-to Bible passage that you fall back on throughout life? Please tell about it's importance to you.

One of my favorite parts of the Bible is Psalm 46. My mom used to read it to us at bedtime, along with Psalm 23. Both bring calmness to the busy soul and remind us that God is always the one in charge.

What is your experience as a teacher?

My first call was to teach high school English at St. Croix Lutheran High School and live in the dorm. Next, I taught at St. Paul Lake Mills (grades 7-8), St. Matthew's in Oconomowoc (grade 3) and St. John Waterloo (grades 3-4). I have worked with children of all ages, most recently 4-5 year olds at Kuhl Corner Campus in Lake Mills.

What kind of classroom environment do you strive to have?

My classroom at Zion will hopefully be a happy busy place where children love and learn about their Savior. We will work hard and have fun too!

Any final thoughts that you have going into life at Zion and serving here?

I look forward to serving families at Zion and building some wonderful relationships. Everyone has been very welcoming!

Mr. Andy and Mrs. Gretchen Asmus.

Join us on August 22 for Christian Education Sunday. We will celebrate with the installation of Mrs. Asmus and a church picnic. Professor Nathan Ericson of Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary will be our guest speaker in worship and Bible study.

Projector Operator

Having hymns and artwork projected on the wall during church services is very helpful for people's participation in worship. If you would like to join the list of volunteers to operate our projector on Sunday mornings, please contact Pastor Schwartz. Volunteers must be in grade 6 or older, and training will be provided. Thank you!

Voting Members

There is a requirement in our Bylaws that voters sign Zion's Constitution. One can access the Constitution and Bylaws through our web page. From the homepage select media and then from the drop down box select important documents.

If one scrolls down to the Bylaws section, one can read the details.

Article I, Section 8

We are encouraging members to read it. We are hoping to have voting members who have not signed the Constitution sign it at our subsequent voter's meetings.

Does God go on vacation?

Thankfully, the answer is a resounding no! He is there for us 24/7 all summer long. But he does give us the ability to vacation, to refresh ourselves, to see new sites, to learn new things and to enjoy time with our family.

But while we take it easy, the need for his work goes on. It also means the mission of Zion Lutheran Church goes on. And, oh yes, the cost of bringing God's word to our congregation and to others outside our membership goes on as well. In fact, many large expenses, such as insurance, come due during the summer so that regular giving during the summer months is vitally important.

If you will be gone this summer, please consider online giving to make your offerings to the Lord. This can be done by going to zioncolumbus.org and clicking "Online Giving". Then you can easily set up your profile and make your contributions before you go. If you have access to the internet, you can even contribute while you're on vacation! What could be more convenient?

Where is your treasure?

A four-year-old boy received a zippered mini coin purse from his father. He carried it around in his pocket to store "lost" coins that he would find in public places. This boy never passed up the opportunity to pick up a quarter off the sidewalk or a nickel he found on the floor of a restaurant. When the coin purse got full, he would transfer the coins to his piggy bank. He, of course, did this with hopes of "getting rich."

Within a year, he ran into a problem: the zipper on the coin purse no longer worked, and the fabric began to tear. He showed it to his father, and immediately his father realized this was a teachable moment. He shared some of Jesus's words with him: "Provide money bags for yourselves that do not become old, a treasure in the heavens that will not fail, where no thief comes near, and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Luke 12:33b-34).

The son was obviously perplexed. So, the father explained, "Stuff on this earth doesn't last forever, and even money comes and goes. In heaven, everything lasts forever, and that's the gift Jesus gives to you because he died on the cross for you. Focus on picking up pieces of treasure from God's Word more than you focus on collecting coins from the sidewalk. They're more valuable."

Suddenly the son viewed his collection of coins much differently. When he saw his piggy bank, he was reminded of heaven and the unending treasures God gives through his Word. He also realized he could use some of the coins to help the Word of God spread through the work of his church, so he started putting some in the offering basket. Where his treasure was, there was his heart also.

Now that we've turned the corner to the second half of 2021, we're going to be looking ahead to extending our capital campaign entitled Foundation for Our Future for another year (through 2022). As your Stewardship Board, we want you to know two things: 1) we pray that the financial resources God has blessed you with always remind you of the everlasting treasures of heaven, and 2) we pray that you view your financial resources as a way to support making those treasures known through the ministry of Zion Lutheran Church and School: "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Why This Conflict?

The 2021-22 Multi-Congregational Bible Class Series

There are many conflicts in the world that in some way involve religion. To help laymen understand the backgrounds of these conflicts and how they should respond to them, the Multi-Congregational Bible Class Series, which has been taught under the name Thoroughly Lutheran for the last two years, will study in some depth five important current and historical conflicts. The teachers in this series will be Dr. Arthur Eggert of Peace, Pastor Peter Schlicht of Eastside, and Pastor Michael Willitz of Lord of Love.

The Formula of Concord – Healing 16th Century Lutheranism. Pastor Schlicht will begin the series by teaching about the Formula of Concord. This twelve-session course will reveal how the Lutheran Church became fragmented after the death of Martin Luther and what a small group of Lutheran scholars did to resolve the critical issues dividing Lutherans.

The Israeli-Palestinian Dispute – Dr. Eggert will then examine the roots of the Arab-Israeli conflict and why it is has gone on so long. In this four-session course he will explain the religious development of modern Judaism and Islam, and how they play into this seemingly unresolvable problem.

Lutheranism and Evangelicalism – It's seen on the television. It's heard over the radio. It's sold in Christian bookstores. In many regards, Evangelicalism seems to be the default expression of Christianity in America. Many Lutherans may not realize just how different our confession is. In a four-session course, Pastor Willitz will survey the teaching and practice of American Evangelicalism and present the Biblical, Lutheran alternative.

Science and Christianity – The topic of how Lutherans should view science is frequently occurring and often confusing. As someone well-versed in research science and Lutheran theology, Dr. Eggert will spend four sessions explaining how to understand the claims that often seem to put science in conflict with our faith and the teachings of the Scriptures.

The WELS/ELS-LCMS Split – The Birth and Demise of the Synodical Conference
It has been 60 years since the Synodical Conference fell apart, and many Lutherans still feel the tragedy of this event through the divisions within their families. Dr. Eggert, using material from seminary professor Dr. John Brenner and his own personal involvement in the synodical break-up, will discuss the birth, troubled existence, and death of the Synodical Conference in a four-session course.

"Whatever became of them?"

Jim Grasby is principal of Lakeside Lutheran.
Reach him at 920.648.2321 or jgrasby@llhs.org

Everyone remembers people from their past—classmates, neighbors, friends, even relatives. At some point, they were separated and eventually lost contact. Later, we may wonder, "Whatever became of them?"

By nature, all humans are sinful. There isn't a time in which we live without sin and its effects in this life. David asserts, "Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me" (Psalm 51:5). Paul echoes, "There is no one righteous, not even one" (Romans 3:10). Indeed, since the fall into sin, no human knows righteousness or holiness.

But God sees it differently. He does not see us for who we are. Rather, he sees us for who we have become by faith in his Son. Paul writes, "God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God" (2 Corinthians 5:21).

Instead of seeing us as we are, God sees what we became through the perfect work of Christ. Through faith in him, we become pure and blameless. God sees us as holy because of what Jesus became for us. Many writers have explained Jesus' substitutionary work for sinners. Perhaps none so effectively states it as Luther who wrote, "Learn to know Christ and him crucified. Learn to sing to him, and say, 'Lord Jesus, you are my righteousness, I am your sin. You have taken upon yourself what is mine and given me what is yours. You have become what you were not so that I might become what I was not.'"

Lakeside's biennial theme is Become. In a single word, we hope to remind our students and families, our faculty and staff, board members, and those in our federation that we have become righteous through Christ alone. By God's grace, we have "become the righteousness of God." This is far better than any earthly gift or achievement. It creates in us godly self-worth and value. It encourages and moves us to glorify Christ through whom we have become righteous.

"Whatever became of them?" By God's grace, we know and believe that all believers have become the righteousness of God through Christ Jesus.

SCAN FOR DETAILS & APPLICATION

The out down began at the beginning of this school year and it is nearing its climax. I'm returning to the end of my twenty-year bus driving experience. To say I will miss it would be an understatement. I use to say that I had the pleasure of taking a drive through the country every morning. In recent years I have taken a drive around the capital (Madison) twice a day. Most of my days have been the quiet of mornings, buses full and by a cheerer. I thank you for some of the nicest young adults in the area. The drive home was always more enjoyable with some friendly smiles with almost constant friendly banter and laughter. It has generally been a pleasure driving for Lakeside. I feel I have been truly blessed by this experience and want to say thank you to the parents, students and fellow staff at Lakeside. May 27 I will quit the bus for one last time. Thank you!

Bus driver Jim Redfield (St. Luke, Watertown) retired this spring and left us a note that includes our exact thoughts about HIS faithful service to the Warrior family: "I have been truly blessed by this experience and want to say thank you..." Thank YOU, Mr. Redfield -- may your testimony about the pleasures of bus driving for our teens motivate your replacement to come forward! Please share our need for a new driver for THIS FALL with someone who you think could take the next step at llhs.org/apps/pages/jobs

SEEK THE LORD
 WHILE HE MAY BE FOUND; CALL UPON HIM WHILE
 HE IS NEAR; LET THE WICKED FORSAKE HIS WAY,
 AND THE UNRIGHTEOUS MAN HIS THOUGHTS;
 LET HIM RETURN TO THE LORD, THAT HE MAY HAVE COMPASSION ON HIM, AND TO OUR GOD,
 FOR HE WILL ABUNDANTLY PARDON.

ISAIAH 55:6-7
